

1914 Prices On Ford Cars Are Effective

On And After August 1st, 1913

RUNABOUT, . . $5000

TOURING CAR, . . $5500

TOWN CAR, . . $7500

The price includes a full and complete accessory equipment, consisting of windshield, speedometer, gas lamps, generator, top with side curtains, oil lamps, horn, tools and tire repair outfit.

The prices listed above are F. O. B. Detroit, Mich. In Richmond, Va., there is an additional charge of $25.00 per car, for freight and assembly expense.

At present we are entirely sold out, having delivered twenty-four cars to customers during the past two weeks.

Our contract allotment for August is limited to but thirty cars, and the factory expect that a number of these will be delivered by us to our dealers throughout Virginia.

We expect to reserve for retail customers only as many as we secure orders for during the first week of August, as it would be unfair to our dealers throughout Virginia to do otherwise. We expect to receive one or two carloads of our August allotment during the week of August 4th, and prospective purchasers who have been contemplating purchasing a Ford car some time next year will be able to buy now at the 1914 price, and secure eight months' use of their car before the spring of 1914.

If you want a Ford car now at the 1914 price, we would suggest that it would be to your interest to let us have your order immediately, as we will be unable to make August deliveries except to a very limited number of purchasers whose orders are placed during the week of August 4th.

GRIFFIN THREATENS GENERAL SHAKE-UP IN RANKS OF COLTS

long as Richmond continues within striking distance of the top, with a club that is admittedly weak in two essential departments, there is hope of winning out at the finish, should these faults be corrected.

Dr. Harry Hedges, who achieved the distinction of landing the first no-hit, no-run game of the season, his blanked Roonke yesterday in the first game of the double header with Petersburg. Since he has been sold to Washington, Clark Griffith will probably read the box score with a great deal of interest. Likewise, he will probably want the young man to report at once. Washington, like Richmond, is showing a remarkably weak attack, and to offset this defect, good pitching must be secured. Griffith has just two dependable pitchers at this time, Johnson and Boehling. Young Enloe is improving rapidly, but has not reached that stage of development to put him among the regulars, while Gallia has not proved his worth. It all goes to show that even the best of scouts may go wrong some time. Mike Kahoe, while here watching Hedges, was asked concerning Ayers, and told us that he wouldn't pay the big talk is silly on the face, for any pitcher, with Ayers's record must have something to date, he has won twenty-three games and lost three, with less than one base on balls a game, an average of five hits a game with 11 runs per game, and nine strikeouts for each appearance. He has won as consistently abroad as at home, and has beaten every club in the league.

We told yesterday that Jake Poh, a local amateur would probably sign a Richmond contract. The probability that he will is even greater to-day. He has determined to play professional ball and is anxious to play with Richmond if the inducements are great enough. Griffith has promised him a very liberal contract, provided he can deliver, and has also agreed that should he sign he will not be farmed to any club in the Carolina League. Steve had Jim Vance looking for a job over yesterday while he was playing with the Grays. Vance's report was highly flattering to the youngster, and Poh will likely go with the team to Portsmouth to-night.

If Poh actually signs it will mean that Connie Bresnahan is to be given a rest for a few days. Connie has not been in good shape for some time. He has been working as hard as he ever did in his life, but somehow or other the old pep is lacking. His hitting has been way off, and Steve feels that if he is allowed to take things easy for a little while, it will get him right about the time the real fight for first place is on. In this case Davis will be shifted to third and Poh given a chance to show what he can do at second. Even should Poh refuse to sign or fail to come to any agreement, it is not improbable that Steve will take the hot station, thereby relieving Bresnahan for ten days. Steve feels that he is in pretty fair shape now, and that he can be of some help to the club.

There is one thing certain: something must be done and done quickly if the Colts hope to keep up with the procession. Weak pitching and weak hitting never combined to make a winning ball club. True, every club will have a slump, but the Colts have been slumping with too great frequency for a pennant-winning aggregation. And speaking of weaknesses, neither Mace nor Rogers are proving of any great value to the team. Neither is showing an ability to coach the pitchers or to steady them at critical moments. It's a weakness that has been apparent for some time, and one that must be overcome along with the pitching.

If Birmingham can do as well in Philly as he did in Boston, where he cleaned up all five games, he will leave just two and one-half games behind the Elephants, who will face the long Western grind, while Cleveland is basking in the sunshine of home fandom. While everybody has believed that the Athletics were out so far that they couldn't be overtaken, strange things have happened in the game where the dope acts like the weather—all signs failing in dry spells.

The Virginia League race, for instance, has been muddled because Roonke, after winning two straight from Petersburg, lost that double bill yesterday. Indulging in a few ifs, had Roonke won both and had Richmond taken both from Newport News, which was the logical program in view of past performances, they would have been so nicely hunched that no one would have dared choose among the three. Now Petersburg is sitting jauntily at the top of the heap, with every prospect of improving their position during the week.

TAME RACES MARK CLOSING PROGRAM

Getaway Day at Comstock Park Fails to Produce Any Sensational Trotting.

Grand Rapids, Mich., August 2.—The grand circuit meeting at Comstock came to an end this afternoon with a rather tame card of three races, the feature of which was the 2:06 trot. This was won by the Illinois gelding, Rosa B. In straight heats. A bonus was offered the driver of Rosa B. if he would beat the trotting race record of the track at 2:04.3-4 on Wednesday by Chesney, but the bay was not equal to the task. Both heats were negotiated in 2:06.1-2.

A high class trotting stallion appeared in the 2:16 trot in Lord Dewey, which won in straight heats easily, taking a new record of 2:10 in the third mile. The 2:13 pace developed into a five-heat race, which was won by the Columbus stallion, Herman Wagner.

AQUATIC MEET ON AUGUST 16

Program of Events Now Being Arranged by Secretary of R. A. A. F.

The aquatic meet which will be held at the Virginia Boat Club on the James on Saturday, August 16, under the auspices of the Richmond Amateur Athletic Federation, promises to be a great success. Interest is growing daily and many inquiries are being made relative to the various events.

In the Times-Dispatch within the next few days application blanks will be sent to the various clubs, and they will be asked to enter any of the events and only to clip the same out of this paper and forward to the secretary of the federation.

With the canoe races there will be the canoe diving stunts which create amusement. Several special events are being planned by those interested in aquatics, and a program of unusual interest will be arranged for the entertainment of spectators.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR KENNEL SHOW

State Fair to Give Dog Fanciers Opportunity to Display Animals.

The Virginia State Fair Association has now completed all arrangements for holding the greatest kennel show ever held in the city, during the fair week, beginning October 6.
George F. Foley, of Lansdowne, Pa., states that many of the famous show dogs of the North and West will be here in charge of the best known handlers in the country. The Fair Association is offering nearly $1,000 in cash prizes for all breeds of dogs, and the following men will comprise the bench show committee: C. B. Cooke, chairman; W. Gay Smith, W. Earl Miller, George T. Hogg, Stewart Weiss, all of Richmond; J. Marvin Luke, of Norfolk; S. E. Tillet, of Norfolk, and A. F. Morrisette, of Norfolk; E. M. Wilson, of Washington, D. C., and Howe Tolten, of Baltimore, Md.

The judges will be the well-known Dr. E. Lester Jones, Montpelier, Va., and Dr. John E. DeMund, of New York.
Many of the local business people have offered special prizes.

GIANTS TAKE LAST

Chicago, August 2.—The Giants took the final game here to-day from the Cubs, 2 to 1, the winning run being scored in the eighth, when Bresnahan threw wild to nip Shafer stealing second, and Shafer scored. Their first tally came in the third, when Burns walked, stole second, and scored on Shafer's single. The only Cub tally was Shafer's homer in the second. Tetreau, for the Giants, pitched great ball, allowing only four hits, although he granted six passes. He struck out eight Trojans. Cheney held the visitors to six slams. Score:

ATHLETICS WHIP BROWNS

Philadelphia, August 2.—Brown put up a glib article of ball to-day, and the Athletics defeated St. Louis, 4 to 1. He allowed only five hits, and after the first inning there was practically nothing doing in the way of runs for the visitors. In addition to his fine work in the box, Brown lambasted out a home run. Shotten starred at the bat for the Browns and his teammates fielded faultlessly, but they could not stop the timely hitting of the locals. Score:
